

DAVIS TO ADVISE MINERS AGAINST BIG WAGE DEMAND

Goes With The Approval Of Coolidge To Address Mine Workers.

SEEK TO PREVENT STRIKE IN APRIL

Coal Wage Controversy To Come Out Into Open In February.

Washington, Jan. 18.—With the approval of President Coolidge and against a bundle of facts bearing on the coal industry, Secretary of the Interior Davis will address the annual meeting of the United Mine Workers at Indianapolis on January 31. It was learned today.

Persistent rumors that on April 1, when the present agreement between the bituminous operators and miners expires, the country will be confronted with another gigantic coal strike, has prompted the administration to step in and advise the mine workers to go slow in making extravagant demands upon the operators in the way of an increased wage scale.

Secretary Davis is expected to go out to the miners that the bituminous mines of the country are greatly overmanned, many mines are shut down or are working only part time and that a strike eventuating from a failure to agree on a new wage scale because of the extravagant demands might be followed by drastic measures by federal authorities.

Negotiate New Agreement

The wage controversy will come out in the open in February when the policy committee of the operators and miners in Jacksonville, Fla., to negotiate a new agreement to replace the one expiring April 1.

The miners' Indianapolis convention is expected to instruct its policy committee to make certain demands on the operators and the Davis speech may influence the miners in the formulation of their demands.

John Hays Hammond chairman of the United States coal commission, which recently went out of existence, said today that a permanent board of inquiry in the interstate commission which was recommended by the commission in its final report.

By April, when the existing bituminous agreement expires, the board can be in full possession of all necessary facts and if a strike is called could place the responsibility where it belongs. The public could then do the rest."

Minister Under Fire, Charge Love Affair

Pastor Of Fashionable Chicago Baptist Church Is Named In Divorce Suit By Church Worker's Husband.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Plans for a new investigation by a church committee into the relations of the Rev. Dr. Carl D. Case, pastor of the fashionable First Baptist church of Oak Park, and Mrs. Albert R. Leland, ardent worker in his flock, were under way today.

They were stimulated when Leland named the pastor in a divorce suit brought against his wife and introduced a 14-page "confession" which Superior Judge Foell read, then suppressed, after indicating that he would grant the divorce and give the husband custody of the three children.

Leland's charge that his wife was infatuated with the minister, had admitted that she loved him, and confessed to receiving ardent attentions from him, was supported by the testimony of his aged father, the Rev. H. C. Leland of Dewitt, Ia.

Case, on the other hand, today remained firm in his denials of improper conduct with Mrs. Leland and confident that the new investigation would clear him again.

The question of the relations between the minister and Mrs. Leland were called to the attention of the board of trustees of the church two months ago and at the request of Leland an investigation was made which "found the charges baseless."

Leland testified that unwittingly he had acted as courier between his wife and the minister, discovering that the minister believed to relate to church work were love notes when he innocently opened one to deliver "the urgent church business message" by telephone instead.

He said he had carried half a dozen letters to the minister, without suspicion. Direct accusations based on the love letter discovery resulted in the confession which he introduced as evidence.

The Rev. Mr. Leland father of the plaintiff, said his son's wife had written him at length asking advice, describing a "hypothetical case" of a woman whose love had gone astray, the details of which he found later were duplicated in his son's charges.

DRASTIC SLASHES PROVIDED IN NEW TAXATION OFFER

Senator King, Democrat Of Utah, Latest To Draw Up Proposal.

EXTRA EXEMPTION WOULD BE GRANTED

Would Also Reduce Normal Rate On All Incomes Above $5,000.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Another new taxation reformatory plan proposing more drastic slashes than any previous measures, was brought out for congressional approval today.

Senator King, Democrat of Utah, author, in making public a brief summary of the bill, announced that he would introduce it early next week.

The bill is designed, King said, "to provide an equitable and balanced reduction of taxes upon all classes of people, the rich and poor alike, and is not intended as a play for political advantage, but rather to remove along sound economic lines, the tax burden from the public."

King would reduce taxes by approximately $390,000,000, or $67,000,000 more than the net cut proposed by Secretary Mellon. The largest slash would fall within that class whose yearly income is less than $5,000.

As the underlying medium for reducing the taxes, King proposed that a $1,500 extra exemption be allowed on all incomes. This would mean that single men earning $2,500 or less, and married men earning $4,000 or less would be free from tax payments. King estimated that 5,000,000 incomes would fall within this category, thus cutting the taxes on the smaller earned incomes by $124,000,000.

Would Reduce Rate

The measure would reduce the normal rate on incomes above $5,000 a year from 8 to 5 per cent. Mellon's plan cuts the tax on these incomes to 6 per cent. Such a reduction King figured, would amount to $40,000,000.

With few exceptions, including admissions on theater tickets, King would repeal all the so-called nuisance and amusement taxes. This would aggregate a cut of $135,000,000 a year in taxes.

Approximately $90,000,000 would be wiped out in surplus tax cuts. This would be done by placing a 20 per cent cut on incomes of $100,000 and scaling the rate down gradually to 1 per cent on incomes of $5,000, without materially changing the present rates or decreasing the amount of revenue. The rate also would be scaled upward to 25 per cent on incomes of $125,000 or over.

SAYS ANNEXATION WOULD BANKRUPT PERRY TOWNSHIP

French Says Schools And Roads Would Suffer; Benefits Small.

Extension of the city limits, as recommended by the municipal affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce, would not provide sufficient benefits to the city and would bankrupt the remainder of Perry township, according to views expressed Friday by C. S. French.

Township residents are not getting the benefits of city improvements, he declares. He says there are a few private water mains which are too small for fire protection, as there is lack of pressure.

He also says that robbing the township of those properties in close proximity to the present city limits would bankrupt the remainder of the township for school and road improvements.

At present about 100 grade pupils in Perry township are attending the city schools and about 300 others are in the township schools. All township high school students are attending Salem High school and the township pays $12 a month for each high school student. The city cannot benefit to that extent under the proposed extension, French believes.

"Fascinators School" Makes Great Hit, To Be Repeated At Christian Church Tonight

The play "School of Fascinators" given by the Loyal Women's class of the Christian church Thursday evening, proved to be very popular with the large number of people who crowded the church school room where it was presented. Many were turned away unable to get in and for this reason the play will be repeated Friday evening.

The play was ridiculously funny and afforded the audience continuous merriment. The characters were attired in comic makeups.

While all the characters took their part well, contributing to the success of the entertainment, Miss Sarah Coffee as Mrs. Maria Jenkins Brown Ketchen, head of the school, and "Little Mandy Dubbs," the widow's mite, played by Mrs. Virginia Courtney, starred in their roles.

DENOUNCES KLUX CHIEFS IN CANTON

Lofty Ideals Are Trampled Under Foot By Selfishness, He Charges.

Canton, Jan. 18.—Charging that Canton Klan No. 1, realm of Ohio, was being prostituted and the lofty ideals of Col. Joseph H. Simmons, emperor, trampled under foot, H. A. Lutz, personal representative of Col. Simmons, declared here today that the Klan in Canton and all Ohio cities was either going to be "cleaned up or wiped out."

A meeting of Klansmen, faithful to the teachings of Col. Simmons, was called and 2,000 of them adopted a resolution in which the local administration was denounced for alleged high-handed dealing and mismanagement of the organization's finances. "This is the opening gun in a campaign which will be waged in Ohio from this day until the ideals of Col. Simmons and Ku Klux Klan either become paramount or fall into the dust, defeated by the foes of the principles which prompted the founding of this organization," Lutz said here.

Charges Selfishness

"Klans have been named at the heads of city organizations in Ohio who have no idea of trying to further the ideals of the order. They are in their positions merely for selfish purposes. Because they are in these positions they are enabled to create such dissension that the decent men who have joined are forced to become inactive or to withdraw. "Those who attempt to stay and fight it out are either suspended or banished. Through this method of administration undesirable have the reins and I say unqualifiedly that the Klan in Ohio is now rotten to the core and we are going to pare the entire organization or there will be a new order spring up."

"Canton is the first city in the new campaign. We have a good basis here for a battle. The majority of the members here are in favor of a housecleaning. They have a right to be. None of them have any recents to show where their money went when paid into the organization and (Continued on fifth page.)

Community Building

IT is the belief of Edward L. McClain that the best way to improve a community is to improve the schools. Firm in that belief, he has expended more than $1,000,000 of his personal fortune in giving his home town of Greenfield schools that equal the best, fitted completely for the task of molding the men and women of the future. In many ways the work he has made possible is one of the notable activities in community building in the country. He has brought many of the interesting opportunities of the world to Greenfield and the boys and girls have enjoyed them while at home.

Greenfield is in Highland county, a prosperous community of 5000; McClain is the wealthy citizen, whose fortune has been made in business there. A score of years ago he began dreaming of things that might be done, things that were needed, he thought, in his home town. He dreamed of a city that was ready to meet modern needs, that would help its boys and girls with training that would fit them for large results in life. A new centralized high school, a plant that cost $500,000, was his first offering. It was opened eight years ago and has been crowded, so great was the response to his generosity. The auditorium with its pipe organ, has become the community center. From it has been developed a real community spirit and pride. The city built a primary school in keeping and now McClain is building a vocational high school, the plant costing another $500,000. In it boys and girls may be trained and fitted for their chosen vocations and laboratories will help in their studies.

He knows there should be play time in every normal life so he has spent $80,000 for a large tract of land and has given it to the schools and the city as an athletic field, the city to supply the improvements. His offering to the city will make it possible for the people to be wise and be healthy if they but employ the opportunities he has provided.

It will need years to show the larger results from the development he has brought to the city, but results are in evidence and there is a community spirit and pride, a choice for the better things in life, a quickening of the qualities that make for better men and women. There will be more abundant proof of the wisdom of his choice as the years go by, as the work of the schools is given a larger opportunity for display and proof in test.

It was a great vision that was in the mind of the generous donor, a fine quality that was in his heart when he gave so much to the boys and girls, when he made a foundation so strong on which to rear the structure of a greater and better community.

Through his donation of $100,000 with which the World War Memorial building is being constructed, W. H. Mulkins gave Salem the same opportunity to improve its community life. This city has excellent school facilities; it did not need so much improvement along that line. But there has been lacking in this city a place where all groups might assemble to develop play in its most wholesome aspect and other higher ideals of community life. The Memorial building will provide the great opportunity.

The only question to be answered is whether Salem as a community is broad enough, big enough to forget its petty differences and grasp its opportunity. The building in itself is but a mass of brick and steel attractively assembled; the warm heart of a liberal donor is back of it and it now needs to be filled with the warmth of a grateful community heart and a wholesome spirit that can cement all groups into a harmonious body striving only for the best things in community life.

TAX PROBLEMS ARE TAKEN UP

Remedial Measures Discussed at State Conference.

PROGRAM MAY BE ADOPTED

Carmi Thompson to Be an Associate Manager of Coolidge Campaign For Presidential Nomination — Manifested Reformatory Turning Out Office and School Furniture—Kearns Says Great Building Year Ahead.

Columbus, Jan. 9.—Representatives of groups and organizations who will be affected by any change in revenue producing laws are in conference in this city this week to discuss remedial measures. Teachers, bankers and business are represented by speakers on the program. Remedial measures are to be suggested and discussed, and probable tax legislation may be decided upon to be recommended to the legislature.

Taxation securities will be discussed with S. E. Forney, secretary-treasurer of the Ohio tax association, leading the debate on them. John A. Zanesville, Cleveland, president of the association, in his annual message, will outline measures for remedying the present tax situation, especially with reference to appraisals. Advance information on his address shows he will declare the most important step in the legislation requiring taxation of all property is a uniform rule and uniformity. He will stress the need of better economy in public expenditures.

Other who will speak include Dr. E. H. Under, superintendent of roads at Cincinnati, who will represent the Ohio State Teachers' Association and give that organization's views on taxation; Albert E. Smith, New York; George E. Ruffalo, Ohio Good Roads Federation; J. H. Thacher, Franklin county; Horton H. Hampton of Cleveland; and John E. McClehen of Cincinnati.

Officials of the tax association at the meeting will endeavor to reach a plan and maintain a nonpartisan, nonpolitical citizen agency for the purpose of efficiency and economy in public expenditures; to gather and compile the most accurate and complete statistics and data obtainable on taxation; to formulate and disseminate information for the guidance of the public thought on taxation; to secure a more deal in taxation for those who earn a living.

Mr. J. E. Clark, manager of the manufactures and sales division of the state welfare department, said that 700 of the 1,000 prisoners in the Mansfield reformatory are engaged at the present time in making office and school furniture and fixtures. And even with this large number of prisoners at this work, practically one-fourth of the reformatory's production, orders are coming in so rapidly that an addition to the force will soon be necessary. Mr. Clark said that the present force of 1,000 men put in by the present force is included in the many orders now being filled at the reformatory are those for approximately $20,000 worth of school furniture and fixtures for Columbus public schools. Delivery on these contracts has already been started and will be completed in March, according to present plans.

State universities have placed orders for thousands of dollars' worth of furniture and fixtures to be delivered during the next few months. These orders from small villages, towns, rural schools and other public subdivisions are coming in better this year than ever before, Mr. Clark said.

Mr. Clark notified all purchasing agents of the state that under the law they are compelled to buy of the state when the price bid was as low or lower than private firms, or corporations. The result of this notification has been most gratifying and orders are coming in daily in such quantities that there is a real shortage of furniture in the furniture department of the reformatory. Most satisfying orders are also being received by the reformatory for shoes, clothing, etc., and in the prison, manufactured products and indications are that the coming year will be the greatest in the history of the reformatory in the sales of prison made.

P. Kearns, chief of the division of building operations of the state department of public relations, predicted that the coming year will be one of the greatest in building activities in many years. Under the law, plans for all buildings in which public buildings are held, or buildings used for public purposes in towns and villages where there is no official building inspector, must first be approved by the chief of the division of building operations. The law does not affect any of the larger cities of the state where regular building inspection departments are maintained.

where such official approval can be given to building plans. The number of these plans now being submitted to the state building division is larger than in many years, and Mr. Kearns said that the coming year certainly would be a busy one from a building standpoint. "Of course, all the buildings for which we approve plans are not erected, for when many of the bids are opened they are found to be too high and the work is abandoned," Mr. Kearns said. "But if even half of the plans we are approving result in the erection of new buildings, there should be plenty of work for everybody in the building line."

"It is surprising the number of new garages which are to be built. And this is also true of churches and public halls and meeting places, scores of which are contemplated in various parts of the state. When one considers the extensive building operations which seem certain in the larger cities, and this unusual activity in the smaller towns and villages of the state, it is not unreasonable to predict one of the busiest years for labor employed in such construction work in a long time," Mr. Kearns pointed out.

Carmi A. Thompson, Republican candidate for governor in 1922, has eliminated himself as a candidate in the 1924 race. He will not seek the Republican nomination for governor this year, he declared at Cleveland. Instead he announced his acceptance of the invitation of William M. Butler of Massachusetts, pre-convention campaign manager for President Coolidge, to act as associate manager of the national Coolidge campaign for the Republican presidential nomination. Mr. Butler tendered Mr. Thompson the invitation to act as his personal assistant in the Coolidge pre-convention campaign at Cleveland a week ago. Mr. Thompson took the matter under consideration, and has just announced his decision.

Mr. Thompson has gained a position of importance politically throughout the nation in the capacity of speaker of the Ohio house of representatives, Ohio secretary of state, secretary to the president in the Taft administration, treasurer of the United States and acting secretary of the interior as well as in his activities in behalf of President Harding in 1920. Ohio Republicans had taken it for granted Colonel Thompson would be a candidate for governor again this year.

In the event of President Coolidge's nomination, it is said here, Colonel Thompson may have an important position in the conduct of the campaign for election. Colonel Thompson, in a letter to Mr. Butler, sets forth his reasons for accepting the post as associate manager. He said: "I naturally consider the implied confidence as a high honor and while it will cause some change in my personal plans, I feel that the nomination and election of Calvin Coolidge is of such importance to this country and to the world that if it is thought I can lend a little help in that direction it is my duty to comply with your suggestion. You have suggested that my place is with you. I will accept your judgment and from now on I will devote my time and such talents as I may possess to making Coolidge the Republican standard bearer for 1924."

A clause in the Ohio blue sky law which allows promoters to sell their securities without being examined by the state if the companies do not receive stock for patents, good will or property, will be attacked by the legislature by the state securities division. The handicap under which the department is operating came up recently over a company started by Charles Roy Cox of Columbus which will manufacture a soft drink called Koake. The Koake company is offering common stock at $1 per share, under the exemption clause of the securities law. As a test case, the securities division will stop the activities of the company.

"There are thousands of calls every day all over the United States for 'Koake,' and it is not exaggerating to say that this trade name has an advertising value of $500,000," says the prospectus of the company. Robert M. Mount, manager of the Columbus Better Business commission, who has been investigating the company, says it is simply a promotion scheme which is taking advantage of the Coca Cola name, but the securities division is almost powerless to act.

Overcrowded conditions at the Ohio penitentiary are feared by officials of the institution. Three hundred new prisoners are expected at the prison between now and April, with only 24 prisoners to be paroled in the same period. Population at the penitentiary will be about 3,000 when the new prisoners arrive, Warden Thomas said, the largest population in the history of the institution. Present population is 2,651. At one time in 1923, there were 2,843 convicts in the penitentiary, until that time, the largest number ever behind the walls, and then prisoners had to sleep in corridors. Other inconveniences also were experienced.

Congestion comes as a result of the new policy of the board of clemency tightening down on paroles. It was pointed out. Only six prisoners are to be freed in January, seven in February and 11 in March. Warden Thomas said. General average of paroles given by the board hitherto was over 50 a month, practically the same as the average of incoming convicts.

Has Thanksgiving Every Day

"Two years ago, after suffering many years with stomach trouble I took a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and haven't been sick a day since. I can eat anything I want and have no pain at all. Three doctors had advised operation but your remedy has cured me. Every day is Thanksgiving for me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.

CITY ASKS PUBLIC TO PROVIDE FUNDS

Youngstown Facing Deficit Of $436,000, Asks Citizens To Help.

Youngstown, Jan. 18.—Residents of Youngstown will be asked to raise the $436,000 deficit faced by the city this year by public subscription. A campaign to raise the money is to be staged in the city soon. Law Director Clyde W. Osborne today made first announcement of the administration's plan to meet the deficit. He mentioned it in a speech at the state convention of employment heads at city hall and later in an interview explained in detail the city's plan.

Every man and woman will be called on to contribute. The city will be divided into precincts and teams will be organized to collect funds and receive subscriptions. It is the aim of the administration, Osborne said, to stage a campaign similar to the Liberty loan and other war drives.

LONDON WOMEN WEAR VIVID RED SHOES, GOWNS

London, Jan. 18. — After several weeks of the "blues," fashion is taking a turn in another direction and is embarking on an all red route.

Dressmakers prophesy that in the early part of this year women will be red from head to heel, indoors and in the streets. There are already signs of it.

Red shoes are now to be seen at every shoe store, and such gay footwear is having a very big sale. These shoes are mostly made from

Deserted Wife 17 Years Ago; Returns When He Inherits Fortune

John Drummond

A few months after he married Elizabeth Garland in Haverstraw, N. Y., 17 years ago John Drummond disappeared. No word was ever heard of him. A few days ago he drove up in a fine limousine and bade his wife give up her $16 a week job in a shirtwaist factory. He refuses to say where he has been, but admits he returned when he learned he had inherited $100,000 from the estate of his brother, prominent New York hat manufacturer.

kinskin or other soft leather and generally are of the strap or sandal shape.

Bright pillar-box red shoes are worn more than those of deeper shades of the color. There is also a demand for shoes with champagne, gray, or black straps heeled with red.

The increase in the use of red footwear is bound to revive red fashions, since many women dress to their shoes.

A leading dressmaker said that at present red is being used considerably for evening wear, but not to any great extent for street clothes.

The Duchess of York has lately appeared twice in red evening frocks, which fashion is sure to be followed by many women who take her as their fashion leader.

Red and gold evening evening coats are popular, while frocks and hats are made from similar stuffs.

Pillar-box and cerise hats are promised among the new year millinery fashions and red coats and wraps are promised a bigger place than they have had for many years.

There are also gloves which illustrate the red route which fashion is taking; all-red gloves and gloves decorated with red but it is doubtful if any women will be seen wearing them.

ECUADOR PINEAPPLES HUGE

They Grow to Weight of Twenty-Five Pounds in the Province of Esmeraldas.

Ecuador is fast becoming a great fruit-growing country, said Frank Edward Kink of Esmeraldas, Ecuador, to the New York Times.

"Pineapples grow to a weight of 25 pounds in the province of Esmeraldas," he declared. "This is about twice the size of the pineapples grown in Hawaii and shows that we must have very superior soil. Moreover, there is no place in the world that produces such large, thick-skinned, seedless oranges."

"Indications are that the province has also a considerable wealth in oil. There are a great number of oil seepages which would indicate a great production of high-gravity oil. The character of this oil is higher than the famous Pennsylvania oil, and has been produced in Ecuador for the last 200 years, but it is only recently that modern machinery has been used for drilling, with excellent success. One month ago an English company brought in a well of 300 barrels an hour of 38 gravity oil. These conditions combine to encourage immigration, which is steadily increasing in Ecuador."

"You are a man of courtesy."

"I try to be," answered Senator Sorghum.

"What would you do if a woman were to be the opposing candidate?"

"You've got to draw the line somewhere. I'd give up my seat to a lady in a street car, but not in the United States senate."

Wool Growing Is Declining.

The production of sheep for wool alone is rapidly on the wane in the United States. More and more emphasis is being placed on the production of lamb and mutton for the table, although only 37 per cent of the meat consumed by the average American for the last five years was lamb or mutton.

Picture Framing as an Art

Picture framing is not merely a neat corner and a well-cut mat, though such niceties play their part. It is a matter of discriminating selection, making the most of a picture by means of mat and moulding exactly right in width, color and effectiveness. It's the "know how."

PICK HOWARD FOR SHIPPING BOARD

Former Farm Bureau Head Will Represent The Interior States.

Washington, Jan. 18.—A "dirt" farmer will sit on the United States shipping board as representative of the interior states.

President Coolidge, it was learned authoritatively today, has decided to appoint J. R. Howard of Iowa, long prominent in agricultural movements, as a member of the shipping board.

Howard formerly was head of the American Farm Bureau Federation. At present, he is president of the Transportation Institute, an organization composed of railroads, shipbuilders and representatives of the public, which is seeking to determine by study and investigation on some equitable solution of the transportation problem.

what is more they will never get a card to show that they are affiliated with the Klan.

Few High Class Citizens

"They know now that they can expect nothing from the present rulers of the empire. They are determined to carry the fight. A set of charges have been presented to the local league, L. A. Mueller, and he has refused to answer any of them. He is going right with his henchmen and he will be routed or will find himself force of numbers if not by his own extrication from the order by the force of numbers if not by his own conscience.

"Unless he makes an accounting of money paid him and furnishes each member with identification on cards at once. That will be the real break in the organization. The dissatisfied members in other cities will then be asked to take similar action.

It is a fact that few of the active members of the Klan in this state could be classed as high class citizens. The by-laws and constitution of the order have been prostituted by the money changers. From a financial standpoint the Klan under the rule is prospering but the standard of the organization has been reduced to a point where few decent people could afford to be affiliated with it even in secrecy."

Agoga Class Names Assistant Officers

Assistants to the new class officers were appointed at a special meeting of the Agoga class of the First Baptist church Thursday evening at the church. They are:

President Merle Miller; vice president Lloyd Vothay; assistant vice president Denzil Bush; second vice president Harvey Lottman; assistants Delbert Miller, Dallas DeRhodes, Homer Eddy; secretary, Wayne Marietta; assistants, Carey Jackson and George Bush; treasurer, Delbert Miller; assistant, Raymond Marshall.

Several things of importance to the class were discussed. The class welcomes any young man who wishes to study the Word of God. The next meeting of the class will be held in three weeks.

CANDIDACY BOOM NAILED BY BAKER

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—"Nothing is further from my thoughts than being a candidate for president," Newton D. Baker, secretary of war in the cabinet of President Wilson, said today, commenting upon a report which had gained circulation that he was contemplating becoming a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president.

The report came as a surprise to friends of Mr. Baker here, the former war secretary having often expressed his desire to remain in private life.

Splendid Show at Grand
Cartland's Comical Cutups, the musical comedy show playing at the opera house three nights this week in connection with the regular show, is possibly the best musical comedy show of the smaller or tabloid type that has been put on at the Grand in Salem this season, and the opening performance last night, "Toby Hanna," was played to a good house of well pleased patrons.

Show is splendid throughout, consisting of a chorus of beautifully dressed girls and special comedians and special singers. The play was clean throughout, songs were the latest and music snappy, and the acting good. The character taken by Miss Alma Blake, special character comedienne, was a scream from start to finish. Billy Byrne, the comedian with four voices, made a decided hit.

This company will appear again tonight and three times tomorrow, matinee and twice at night.

Better Than Lawyer.
A popular comedian was a witness in a suit for slander, and the opposing counsel said: "You are an actor, I believe?"

"Yes," replied the comedian.

"Is not that a low calling?"

"I don't know; but it's so much better than my father's that I am rather proud of it."

"What was your father's calling, may I ask?"

"He was a lawyer," said the comedian.

Blueberries an Inch Thick.
A blueberry an inch in diameter is not a dream but a possibility. At the government testing plantation at Whitesbog, N. J., about 25,000 hybrids have been fruited. Berries three-fourths of an inch in diameter have been produced on many of them, and one of them this year reached almost seven-eighths of an inch. The Department of Agriculture will continue the experiments until berries an inch in diameter are obtained.

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists Call It "Joint-Ease" Because It's For Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaky Joints Only.

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

"Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else.

Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, crick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

The J. H. Chase Drug Co., Floding's drug store and Bolger & French's dispenses it daily for about 60 cents a tube, as do first class druggists everywhere.

Red Man Prefers Red Color.
The red man's fondness for gaudy color schemes has long been known, but it has remained for Dr. T. R. Garth of the University of Denver to scientifically ascertain the color preferences of the Indians in the Southwest. Full-blooded Indians were found to prefer red to all other colors, then blue, violet, yellow and white in the listed order. White men, living in the same social and educational environment, preferred blue, then green, and then red.

The education of the red man has little apparent influence upon his favorite colors. The squaws and the braves agreed more closely in their selection of colors than the whites and the Indians did. The full-blooded Indians were found to be very emphatic in their color preferences, much more so than the mixed bloods and the whites.

BUTLER IS BANNER FARM BUREAU UNIT

There is not a delinquent farm bureau member in Yellow Creek township, and the township contains 26 names. The campaign to test every head of cattle in this township has gone through, and 75 per cent of the herd owners of the township have signed up for the tuberculosis test under federal and state supervision. The test will follow that to be made in West township during the current year.

Only a few townships in the county remain to be signed up for this work. With 162 paid up members on its roster, Butler township is the banner farm bureau unit in the county.

Liverpool township foots the list with but seven members. Butler township shipped 180,000 pounds of live stock co-operatively last season. Butler township also has 179 herds of cattle representing 1,510 head on the waiting list to be tuberculin tested, of which 679 head are pure bred.

There were 1,200 pounds of wool shipped out of Butler township last year on the co-operative basis.

Turned down again! Reason—only one arm. He finds it difficult to get a job because industrial efficiency demands that there be a complete man at every machine. Yet the successful applicant is frequently much less fitted for his work than the one-eyed man, for employment managers are hiring "one-eyed" workers without knowing it. In America there are twenty-five million people who don't realize that they need glasses. Call them "one-eyed" for two eyes which do not see properly may be of no more use than one.

If you are an employer have your employees' eyes examined without delay.

If you are an employee and your employer has not done this have your eyes examined at once.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Crop Yield Boosted By Fertilizers And Germ Proof Potatoes

That Columbiana county farmers have made long strides in improving the fertility of their soil during the last few years, was disclosed by County Agent Clarence E. Rowland Thursday, when he showed a record of the purchase through the farm bureau office in Lisbon last year of 8,400,000 pounds of fertilizer.

That the application of such a solution to the soil was worth while, was also disclosed by personal reports of township farm bureau chairmen who have advised Mr. Rowland of an increase in the production of the acreage where the fertilizer was applied, over the harvest from lands where none was applied.

Columbiana county, also, is the only one in Ohio that last year brought into the state germ proof certified seed potatoes. The yield from the use of such stock showed an increase of 40 bushels per acre over "just seed." On the very low basis of even $1 per bushel the farmers who showed this increased yield made more per acre from their potato acreage than did their neighbors who did not use such seed stock.

DEAR "MINNIE"—WE'RE ALL SORRY FOR YOU. LIFE'S TOUGH ON A HOMEY GIRL. 15h

1,101,863 DEATHS IN U. S. IN YEAR

Washington, Jan. 18.—The Department of Commerce announces that 1,101,863 deaths occurred in 1922 within the death registration area of the United States, representing a death rate of 11.8 per 1,000 population as compared with the record low rate of 11.6 in 1921.

The death registration area (exclusive of the Territory of Hawaii) in 1922 covered 27 states, the District of Columbia and 12 cities in non-registration states with a total non-registration population on July 1 of 1922 of 15,200,000, or 15.2 per cent of the estimated population of the United States.

The increase in the rate from influenza and pneumonia (all forms) from 99.8 per 100,000 population in 1921 to 123.5 in 1922 more than accounts for the slight increase in the rate from all causes. Some of the other diseases for which the rates increased are cancer, diabetes, diseases of the heart, nephritis, cerebral hemorrhage, automobile accidents, accidental falls and accidental burns.

A marked decrease appears in the death rate from diphtheria and enteric fever (typhoid fever) in 1922 as compared with 41.9 in 1921. Enteric fever, however, which the death rate was 1.1 in 1921, was 1.0 in 1922. The death rate from enteric fever, however, which the death rate was 1.1 in 1921, was 1.0 in 1922.

Q.—Being a radiofan and a reader of the News Radio Question Box I am taking the liberty of enclosing a clipping which appeared in one of the local papers regarding the naval disaster about the California coast. I have questioned several fans for the solution of the radio problem referred to in the clipping, but without success.

I will appreciate it very much if you will enlighten me as to why a radio station on shore could determine the location of a vessel at sea when the commander of that vessel could not determine their own location even with their advanced knowledge of navigation. R. S. B.

reference to the clipping, practically all the Atlantic seaboard is lined with what is known as land wireless stations which send out test signals. These signals are intercepted by a loop antenna system or direction finders as they are termed on board ships. Location of a ship's position is merely a matter of using the direction properties of the loop to determine its location with respect to shore transmitting stations.

Q.—Would a cabinet made of sheet iron and grounded, affect the efficiency of a three circuit set A. R. L. A cabinet of this kind would have a detrimental effect on a receiver, but if made of copper or brass it would prove very effective in eliminating induction from outside sources and body capacity effects.

BETTER WIVES AND MOTHERS
The emancipation of women as evidenced by the evolution in dress from steel stays that made a twenty-inch waist and the long street sweeping skirts to the sports clothes of the present day has certainly had its effect upon the health of women. With proper attention to diet and exercise a race of better wives and mothers is assured by it. If, however, ailments develop as evidenced by irregularities, headache, nervousness, nervousness and irritability, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be depended upon to overcome them. Thousands of women testify to its success.

Prof. George Herbert Palmer of Harvard says that the masculine habit of rigid, logical reasoning is contracted very early, and in illustration he tells the following story: "A little boy and girl of my acquaintance were tucked up snug in bed when their mother heard them talking. 'I wonder what we're here for?' asked the little boy. The little girl remembered the lessons that had been taught her, and replied, sweetly, 'We are here to help others.' The little boy snuffed. 'Then, what are the others here for?'"

WOMAN'S NERVES SHATTERED, SUES FOR 15 MILLIONS

York, Pa., Jan. 18.—Mary Keister, a trained nurse, who said her nerves were shattered by the blasting of stone while workmen were improving a road near her home claims $15,000,000 damages from the county. It is the largest claim ever made against York county. Controller Bartschlagger said today.

In her bill for damages, Miss Keister said that her nerves have been so shattered by the blasting that she is now unable to gain a livelihood in her profession. She does not give any other reasons for the large sum demanded.

ROOSEVELT AND SHULER TALKED OF AS CANDIDATES FOR NEW YORK GOVERNORSHIP.

By EDWARD B. CLARK
Washington.—Laymen in Washington find themselves wondering once in a while what the political and office-holding future is to be of certain semi-prominent Republicans and Democrats now holding office in this city. Sometimes these usually come out of the ranks of past-day followers.

Naturally enough the thoughts of the writer turn at once to two men,
both of whom happen to be members of the American Legion post to which he belongs and one of whom until his election to other office was the commander of the post. Washington seems to believe that there is likely to be a future in politics for Theodore Roosevelt, now assistant secretary of the navy, and for George K. Shuler, now New York state treasurer, but who until he was elected to that office, was a captain of marines stationed in Washington.

Here are two ex-service men, two members of the American Legion, both of New York birth and voting residence and both mentioned as likely candidates for the highest office in the Empire state, one on the Republican ticket and the other on the Democratic ticket, for Roosevelt is a Republican and Shuler is a Democrat.

According to Washington gossip
there seems to be a likelihood that Theodore Roosevelt will be the Republican candidate for the governorship of New York, and that his opponent in the election will be Mr.
Shuler. Roosevelt, as assistant secretary of the navy, was in a sense the senior officer of Shuler when he was in the Marine corps.

Both Have Fine Records.

Both Roosevelt and Shuler saw active service in France, both were wounded and both were given decorations for conspicuous personal gallantry. If they should happen to be chosen as opposing candidates of the two great parties for the governorship of New York, the voters would find that there would be little to choose between them so far as army service and high fighting endeavor are concerned.

Now, of course, it is not in any way definitely settled that Theodore Roosevelt is to be the Republican nominee for the governorship of New York. It is hinted in Washington that the prohibition leaders are opposed to the selection of Roosevelt because for some reason or other they seem to think he is not entirely in sympathy with everything pertaining to the means of enforcement of the prohibition amendment. There is an ex-soldier in New York at present holding a position
under the appointment of government who is a "complete dry" and who therefore is supposed to be in the good graces of the prohibition leaders of the state.

This man, who possibly may be Colonel Roosevelt's opponent in the contest for nomination for the governorship, is Col. William H. Hayward, who commanded a regiment in France of high fighting service and who has about all the decorations for gallantry that a man can possess himself of.
New York seems likely to have as a successor to Governor Smith a soldier of parts and accomplishment, but whether he will be a Democrat or a Republican remains to be seen.

Their Political Careers.

Theodore Roosevelt's career thus far virtually parallels that of his father.
He was a member of the New York legislature, a fighting colonel in war on a foreign soil and assistant secretary of the navy. Roosevelt has a good many of his father's mannerisms, born with him, and not assumed as some persons for reasons of their own would have it appear. He has the same type of friends that his father delighted in, and he loves the outdoor life, the roughing it in the open.

George K. Shuler is in an interesting case politically. He was a newspaper reporter and a good one. At his country's call he went into the Marine corps and, as has been said, fought through the war in France. When Captain Shuler was ordered with his regiment back to Washington, he obtained a leave of absence and went to his home town in Wayne county, New York, for the purpose of running on the Democratic ticket for congress.
The district is overwhelmingly Republican and Shuler was defeated, but he ran way ahead of the rest of his ticket.

Then Shuler came back and went again at his duties in the Marine corps. While he still was a marine he was nominated by the Democratic state convention of New York for the office of state treasurer and was elected by a fairly staggering majority.

Theodore Roosevelt seems to be the only one of the sons of the former president to have political ambitions.
He is just as hard a working assistant secretary of the navy as his father was, and the officers associated with him say that he takes the same kind of interest in his job that his father did.

Best to Expect Much.
To expect nothing is not to be disappointed, but those who get a great deal get it because they expect a great deal.

Isn't it a Fact?
How some people who are so widely different from us can be satisfied with themselves is past all human understanding.

The Way Of It
Editor of The News.

Whoever failed to read in Wednesday's paper the message of our honored citizen, Charles Bonsall, Justice of the Peace and Civil war veteran, should secure that copy of The Salem News, read the article with care and remember it ever afterward. The able writer and author of this unusual appeal to sensible people deserves a note of thanks put into effect. He deserves the glad hand of appreciation right now and the flowers in his life time.

This Soldier of the Rebellion has not lost any of his bravery. Though his years are many, his strong mind has attained more brilliancy. Cowards never are pioneers. It takes a man of courage to defend his principles among his friends and neighbors. At heart most men and some women are cowards. The Bible goes farther when it says: "All men are liars."

I have wondered and even dared to say that we expose our beloved dead to the gaze of people as we would not dare do with the living. What one of all does not shudder and rebel at the idea of a public funeral where the lifeless body reposes in a "couch" casket. "Spare me the gaping crowds that come and go," was voiced by a pioneer poet long ago.

As for needless expense and show;
flowers, curious spectators, apparent
at nearly all funerals, Pagan or Christian; read again the wise words of our citizen whom this reader delights to honor.

Warning to Sinners

Editor The News:

Every body has his way planned out to go to heaven. Some preachers preach, join church, attend Sunday school, put on the good smiles and shake hands and to remember the Sabbath day and keep it Holy. Then through the week go to dances, play euchre, go to your lodges of all kinds, chew tobacco, smoke, read all kinds of books, everything but the Bible,
go to all kinds of shows and in general have a good time.

But in all remember the Sabbath day and keep it Holy, and the preacher is with you and in the end if you keep faithful you will have eternal life. And if you will not do as I tell you, the preacher, you will wake up in hell. And no doubt the preacher will ask God to forgive his sins before he leaves the pulpit. And he tell the people we are all sinners and we can't keep from sinning, we sin every day.

Salem, listen what Jesus says. "He that forsaketh not all that he hath, yea, and his own life, he cannot be my disciple. I am the door by me if any man enter in he shall be saved.

He that entereth not by the door into the shepherd, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. My sheep hear my voice and I know them and they follow me, and no man is able to pluck them out of my hand.

There is but one church in the Bible and one way only to become a member, being crucified with Christ, buried with him in the likeness of his death, dead to sin, and to the rudiment of this world, and arise a new man in Christ Jesus.

St. John, 11-25. Jesus said unto her I am the resurrection and the life, he that believeth in me, though he were dead yet shall he live.

First John, 5-11. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and their life is in his son. He that hath the son hath life, and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life; he that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life and I will raise him up in the last day.

How shall we, that are dead to sin,
live any longer therein knowing this,
that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin, for if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection.

That like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the father, even so we also should walk in the newness of life, but God forbid
that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

We should live soberly, righteously,
and godly, in this present world,
looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, but Christ as a son over his own house, whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end, for the Word of God as quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder
of soul and spirit.

This is the way man lives when he is lost in sin, fornication and all un-cleanness, covetousness, filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolator, hath any inheritance in the Church of Christ and of God.

Lost soul, awake thou that sleepest and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. Christ so loved the church, and gave himself for it,
that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing;
as a man sows in this life so shall he reap in eternity.

For he that soweth to his flesh
shall of the flesh reap corruption, but he that soweth to the spirit shall
of the spirit reap life everlasting, for the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord, and I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. How are we lifting him up? Whosoever will, may come.

When the Son makes you free you are free indeed.

Firm, Plump Flesh!

MANY are the eyes that are turned to gaze with keen admiration on the well developed, healthy girl no matter where she may be—on the rapidly moving thoroughfare or gliding gracefully
over the dance floor.

All eyes turn because we all appreciate the girl with the figure so firm and plump—the girl with radiantly red cheeks, cheeks that carry a touch of roses from nature's own garden—the girl with the sparkling eyes, keen and sharp—the girl with buoyancy and the swing of youth.

Not necessarily an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.
S. S. S., since 1826, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—rekindled vitality —added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. Watch that flabby, ill nourished flesh fade away before flesh that is firm and plump. Red blood cells will do it and S. S. S.
will build them. It contains only pure vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores.

RELIEF PLANNED FOR THE FARMER

OUTLINE OF THE PROGRAM THAT IS FAVORED BY PRESIDENT AND CABINET OFFICERS.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—It is said that the first step in the administration's path of endeavor to help agriculture will be along lines drawn by Dr. John Lee Coulter, president of the Agricultural college of North Dakota. Dr. Coulter was at one time connected with Harvard and is recognized as a constructive student of agricultural subjects. Washington has given heed before this to much of his advice.

Bills are pending in the house and senate to provide aid for the smaller wheat raisers who are in a hard condition and who seemingly have no means to raise money to start any farming of other kinds. It is understood the administration will get behind these bills in an endeavor to enact them into law.

The program of first aid for these smaller farmers is said to be the one referred to by President Coolidge in his message when he said that temporary assistance might be granted in certain cases. It is understood the plan is approved by Secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture, and Secretary Hoover of the Department of Commerce.

Outline of the Plan.

Here is an outline of the general plan as taken from an article written by J. P. Esary of the Baltimore Sun: "The plan is designed particularly to meet the emergency situation in the Northwest, but its provisions are general in scope."

"The pending bills authorize an advance of $20,000,000 from the treasury $20,000,000 to be available up to July 1, a like amount for the following fiscal year, and $10,000,000 for the year thereafter. They propose to set up a federal agricultural diversification commission to handle the money, the commission to be composed of the secretaries of agriculture, commerce and the treasury."

"The intention is that loans not to exceed $1,000 to any one farmer shall be made to wheat growers who want to buy dairy stock or hogs, or otherwise change from wheat farming alone to more diversified activities. The government, if the bills become a law as they have good prospect of doing would take a farmer's note and a lien on the cattle, hogs or dairy stock granting easy terms for amortizing the loan. The interest rate would be 1 per cent."

"The bills provide that the commission shall act through the agricultural colleges in the one-crop wheat states covered by the act, and local foreign agent committees are to be organized in the counties to work with county agents and agricultural colleges to pass on applications of farmers and to examine their intended use of the borrowed money. In every instance the loan must be used for diversified farming."

There are further provisions to the effect that government agents themselves may undertake the purchase of hogs or cattle and give the farmers the right to buy at cost. The intention is to give the small farmer the advantage of carlot shipments of stock to the counties from which the deals are directed.

Called Inadequate by Some.

Very soon the agricultural committee of the house and senate will open hearings on these measures, which, it is said, have the full support of the administration and the three departments of government which have to do with all the matters involved—agriculture, commerce and the treasury.

Judging from some of the complaints which some of the representatives and senators in congress make it would appear that these proposed bills to aid the small wheat-growing farmers are only a few drops of water in what needs to be, according to the complainants' statements, a bucket of the water of relief.

Some of the senators and representatives who are neither farmers nor capitalists, but just ordinary business or professional men, say it is hard to learn just what needs to be done for agriculture, because of the fact that there unquestionably is calamity howling on one side and a howling on the other side that no calamity impends.

There have been attempts in other sessions of congress to help agriculture. The world knows the financial relief measures that were taken, and other things that were done, but still it is said that nothing like enough has been done and that if the farmer is to get the relief that he needs and is to stay contented on the farm, there remains much to be accomplished in a legislative way.

If anything further than the enactment of the two bills which have been outlined is to be attempted this year, it seems doubtful if final accomplishment will come. Taxation, bonus and some other things are troubling congress today, and there is an evident desire on the part of leaders in the two houses to do only the things which it is absolutely necessary shall be done before adjournment is taken.

Colon, Panama Canal Zone, Jan. 18.—The first lesson drawn from the American naval maneuvers demonstrated today that an enemy fleet could bombard Gatun locks, the key defensive point of the Panama canal.

The Gatun locks are seven miles inland from the Atlantic entrance. The black "enemy" fleet's long-range guns firing 30,000 yards from positions in the Caribbean sea, succeeded in hitting Gatun but did not put the locks out of commission, which, of course, would block the waterway.

The black fleet established a land base and tried to attack Gatun locks from the air but the aviators were driven off by the fire from high-angle guns.

Fort Hamilton at Colon was under bombardment, the guns of the fort being outranged by those of the "enemy."

The Pacific fleet is moving slowly through the canal and so far the operation has been successful.

The black "enemy" fleet of destroyers laid down a smoke screen Wednesday afternoon at the mouth of Chagres river, ten miles north of Colon on the Atlantic side. It was expected that the "enemy" would attempt to land troops there from huge airplanes.

The defenders rushed reinforcements of land troops to that point to prevent a landing.

Good Health In Happy Old Age

THE chief concern of elderly people is their health, and that is best assured by regular daily bowel movement. There is no truth, however, in the notion that because you are old you need a "strong physic." In fact, just because you are old a mild laxative is better for you. The trouble with purges and cathartics and physics is that they shock the system and weaken it and make the muscles of digestion flabby. Dr. G. H. Brown, M. D., of Frederic, Wis., recently wrote his stomach with purgatives. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin restored his health, as it did Mrs. J. S. Etheridge's, of Milledgeville, Ga.

Does Not Gripe

You can be sure of satisfactory evacuations every day if you will take a spoonful of Syrup Pepsin at night when you retire. You will not need to take it very long as a few doses will soon encourage the bowels to act for themselves. The popularity of this wonderful family remedy has become so great that it is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Because of its mildness and freedom from gripping it is especially ideal for the extremes of ages, for children and for elderly people.

Effective at Small Cost

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store. The formula is on the package, and the cost less than a cent a dose. Take it when you feel heavy, sleep poorly, have headache or night cramps, for these are also symptoms of constipation. Give it to the children when they are restless, feverish or have a cold. Syrup Pepsin will keep you and the family free from constipation, a condition that lowers the vitality 25 per cent and raises the blood pressure 28 per cent. Freedom from constipation lessens the pain of kidney trouble, neuritis and rheumatism.

Should Eliminate Unsoldered Joints

Must Use Care When Lighting Switch Blade Is Pivoted.

In the design of radio installations, one of the simplest and best methods to increase efficiency in both transmission and reception is to eliminate, as nearly as possible, all unsoldered joints. One stumbling-block is often found in the joints of the lighting switch. Since this switch is out of doors, these joints, because of the action of the weather, are of very high resistance and a test may show that the chief trouble is at the point where the blade is pivoted. The pivot to work freely has to be loose, allowing dirt and oxide to collect, while at the jaws the clipping action makes a fairly good self-cleaning contact. It is remarkable that reception is not entirely blocked at times by the poor contacts at the middle support. Such a joint is particularly harmful to C. W. transmission with its low potential. A temporary solution of the problem is found by dispensing with the switch, but of course this can not be tolerated.

In designing a new blade the first consideration is to afford the same or even better protection from lighting and after that to increase electrical efficiency and maintain mechanical strength, economy, and ease of operation. The design evolved can be applied to any standard switch, is easily made by amateurs and can be standardized by manufacturers. It requires no changes in the switch except the blade, and, in the case of an entire switch being manufactured with this feature, would be cheaper. Several of these switches have been in use for almost a year and have given excellent results.

*The blade proper is made of bakelite 1/4 by 1 by 6 in. (the length of old switch blade). A strip of copper is needed 1-16 by 1 in. by 4 1/4 in., bent as shown in the drawing, and drilled one-half inch from the ends with a 1/8 in. drill or larger and countersunk. The bakelite strip is also drilled to accommodate the pivot at one end and with the 1/8 in. drill at the other. All four corners should be rounded. The copper strip is then riveted to the bakelite and the rivet filed off flush on each side. The copper must be allowed to turn freely. The lead-in is then soldered to the copper strip and the switch reassembled for use.

The bakelite forms an insulating handle for throwing the switch and also increases the insulation of the parts from the base. Only one unsoldered contact remains, and several sharp turns are eliminated, which reduces brush discharge. As the copper strip swivels the lead-in is not kinked or twisted in any way.

The switch can be considered merely as a modification of the plug and jack system having an insulating handle, and a guide to direct the plug and keep it always at hand.

Simple Spring Clamp to Hold Your Crystal

This is a simple spring clamp to hold your crystal securely in its place. Anyone can make it from an old crystal cup and a narrow bar. The spring is easy to obtain and the small knob can be found anywhere in the experimenter's "junk box." Solder a curved brass strip to the brass bar, which latter should fit your setscrew hole, put a spring between the strip and the body of the cup on the bar so that when the latter is pulled out the spring contracts. Tap the end of the bar on the outside and screw a small hard rubber knob on it to adjust the clamp. Thus, on pulling the knob out the clamp contracts the spring and the crystal, which is then set in the clamp, is freed, thus holding the crystal securely in place.

The Eternal Measure.
Pa—I see this here radio is sent according to meters.

Ma—First it was the gas meter, then the electricity meter, then we got an automobile and Will uses it to meet her every night and now it's radio. Pretty soon we'll have a meter for the air we breathe.

Vertical Position for Tubes.

When planning a vacuum tube set, place the electron tubes in a vertical position, or so that the filament lies in a vertical plane. A tungsten filament will lengthen when heated, and the filament must be placed in such a position that the sag will not cause it to touch the grid of the tube.

Five County Teams Swing Into Action

"Swinging down the lane" at full tilt the five contending county schools will get into action this week end in many county and non-county games of no little importance.

On the local gym floor the Massillon Boys and the Columbiana Girls will perform Saturday night.

The Columbiana Boys team will be idle Saturday night but Friday night have a big job on their hands with the East Liverpool team as guests. The East Liverpool defeated Salem, but were adjudged not the better team for had Salem's squad been going their usual pace a different story might have been told. So that makes Columbiana's job that much harder, as Salem handed that team a defeat and East Liverpool is anxious to continue its winning streak.

Thursday night East Palestine's High will entertain the two Lisbon teams and there is no doubt but what Lisbon will suffer another sad downfall. Knesal's crews are too much for Lisbon unless a miracle is performed by the county seat passers.

East Palestine, however, will not have such an easy time Saturday night when the holy city team goes to Struthers to meet Erick's two teams of cagers. East Palestine's Boys defeated Struthers last week and are hoping to repeat.

Another non-county game will be at Bellaire Saturday night when East Liverpool journeys down state.

Anent Columbiana's Gym

It is a little late, but still apropos to discuss that controversial subject of the best basketball floor in the county. Last Saturday night it can be said that that little town certainly can be proud of its new school building and a splendidly equipped gymnasium.

The playing floor is still very slippery. It is adequate for the needs of that school. A running track encircles most of the floor giving spectators a chance from above. But the gym is far too small to seriously consider it superior to Salem's.

Salem High has a floor than which there is none better anywhere around here. It is a fine addition, however, that Columbiana gives to the county's floors, because Salem and Columbiana easily take the lead. It is to be regretted that East Liverpool and Lisbon have not larger places in which to hold their games.

43,657 BALLOTS ON PEACE AWARD IN EARLY VOTING

New York, Jan. 18.—A report was made today on the first early returns in the "referendum" on the American Peace Award which began Jan. 7, and will last until approximately the middle of February.

Although many thousands of copies of the plan and ballot, shipped in response to orders have necessarily not yet reached their destination, a good deal of voting has already been done through the ballots in the daily press.

At the end of the first five days of the "referendum" the vote stands 5,128 against the plan and 38,529 for the plan. This is a percentage of approximately 11 3/4 per cent against, and 88 1/4 per cent for.

The committee in charge of the award said that in addition to the 43,657 votes received, thousands of the voters have written letters giving their "fuller comment" in spirited

Things to Know About Our Service

The Meter is a Measure

—an accurate measuring instrument. Scales measure weight. A yard stick measures length and breadth. The electric meter measures and registers the amount of current consumed.

Of course you control, absolutely, this meter registration, just as you control the amount of coal burned in your furnace or the number of gallons of gasoline supplied to your car. You can be thrifty or extravagant in the use of any commodity.

The electric wires carrying current to your lights and appliances pass through the meter and only the current actually consumed can possibly be registered. Meters are even more accurate than watches.

Your bill, then, is just a simple multiplication of the meter registration by the unit price of electricity. READ YOUR OWN METER! Check up on your bills.

Drop into our office and get a folder giving simple directions for meter reading. Begin this month to read your own meter.
